

The Embassy Kirchhofer Group, with locations in Interlaken, Grindelwald, and Lucerne, is today one of the largest retailers for high-quality watches and jewelry in Switzerland and stands for the highest quality in the traditional Swiss watch market.

For our stores in Interlaken, we are looking for flexible and experienced candidate from 01 November 2025 as

Security Employee hourly based (m/f/d) without fixed workload – no fixed workload

Your tasks

- Security services and access control in our various watch and jewelry stores
- Friendly and professional welcome to our national and international customers
- Ensuring correct behavior in exceptional circumstances
- Regular and effective reporting to your supervisor
- You are an ambassador for our stores

Our values – your profile

- Passion – A high degree of empathy and intercultural competence in dealing with our national and international customers.
- Excellence & Experience – Confident manner and resilience, even in demanding situations, experience in dealing with luxury products. Experience in the field of security is also an advantage, but career changers are also welcome.
- Agility – Stress resistance, well-groomed appearance, and good manners. You are also able to work regularly on Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays.
- Togetherness – Teamwork and mutual respect are a matter of course for you. You have a hands-on mentality and actively contribute to the success of the company.
- Openness – You communicate verbally and in writing in English and German. Any other language is an advantage.
- Integrity – You are a trustworthy person with an impeccable reputation. You show initiative and are in good physical condition. Thanks to your sensitivity and resilience, you complement the existing strong team spirit very well. It is an advantage if you already live in the Interlaken area.

What you can expect
